Frequently Asked Questions:

Can I tour your facility? Of course, we are happy to show you Brookwood Pet Resort and encourage tours. Please come during our reception hours and we'll show you around. However, your pets will not be allowed beyond the lobby until they are checked in as a guest.

What do I need to bring when I check my pet in? We will need a copy of your pet(s) vaccine history (provided by your vet) on file showing that rabies and distemper are up to date. Your dog must be vaccinated for kennel cough and we require that your dog's kennel cough vaccine be no more than 6 months old and it must have been given at least 10 days before arriving. We recommend you send these records prior to coming for a speedier check-in (your vet can fax these records to us at (603) 783-4980 if you prefer). Bring medications if needed. Optionally, you may bring treats and/or food if your pet is on a special diet, but keep in mind that we feed a very high quality, good tasting, all-natural holistic food that your dog is sure to enjoy and do well on. You may bring toys as well but we have lots of extras and are glad to provide your pet with one. We also have bones, treats and toys available to purchase in our lobby.

What shouldn't I bring? Please don't bring dishes. Ours are stainless steel and are sanitized in the dishwasher after every meal. We discourage you from bringing in beds and blankets. We do lots and lots of laundry and it's almost impossible to keep track of outside bedding.

Please note: It is the owner's responsibility to check belongings upon pick up to be sure that all are accounted for. We are happy to check our lost & found for missing pieces, but we are not responsible for lost items if they are not found.

Do you recommend a test visit? It's a great idea!! Try bringing in your pet for a full day of camp. They will meet the staff, become familiar with the facility and get to enjoy our activities. When you return for your boarding stay, your pet(s) will be eager to come.

Will my dog have an outdoor run? No, our pods are totally indoors. It eliminates draft and moisture in our overnight area. Your dog will get at least four turnouts per day in our large play yards at no extra charge. They won't be forced to do their business on a cold concrete pad. Our method is much more labor intensive but your pet gets a better stay and a lot more interaction with our staff and, optionally, with other dogs of similar size and temperament.

What else can I do to prepare for our pet's stay? We have a boarding agreement available on our website. Downloading it and filling it in ahead of time will speed up the check-in procedure. You can also email it or fax it ahead.
